	7/1			To 3: I have no legal objection to this report, but I should point out that State Department regulations, which serve as guidance for other agencies, do not permit the retention of watches, jewelry or wearing apparrel for "official use". In my opinion, this "guidance" is not binding and CIA may make its own determination concerning the appropriateness of the retention of a particular gift.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director

FROM: Robert W. Magee
Director of Personnel

SUBJECT: Foreign Gifts Report to the Department of State

1. Attached for your signature is a response to a 14 November 1984 request from the State Department for a report of those foreign gifts with a United States retail value in excess of $140 from 1 January to 27 March 1984 and in excess of $165 from 28 March to 31 December 1984 received by Agency employees from members of foreign governments during 1984. It is addressed to the Secretary of State, to the attention of the Office of Protocol, as directed by the State memo. In 1983, the DCI's transmittal letter was signed by the Executive Director for the DCI and in 1984, it was signed by the Acting DCI. I believe it would be appropriate for you to sign the attached letter for the DCI.

2. You will note that the deadline for submitting the report to State was to be 31 January 1985. Inasmuch as the appraisal of the gifts could not be arranged until 10 January, the Protocol Branch contacted Mr. Richard Massey in the State Department Protocol Office and was granted an extension of the reporting date until 7 February.

3. The gifts listed are in accordance with the 10 January 1985 appraisal by Weschler's Auctioneers and Appraisers. As requested in STAT the State Department memo, our response cites [redacted] Deputy Chief of the Protocol Branch, as the individual who prepared the report and to whom any questions should be addressed. The response also includes, in accordance with Public Law 95-105, 17 August 1977, the DCI's certification that listing of recipients' names could adversely affect United States intelligence sources.
